The Star and Sentinel.

THE LITTLE BROOK.

BY TENNYSON.

I come from haunts of coot and hern,
I make a sudden sally,
And sparkle out among the fern
To bicker down the valley.

By thirty hills I hurry down,
Or slip between the ridges,
By twenty thorps, a little town,
And half a hundred bridges.

Till last by Philip's farm I flow
To join the brimming river;
For men may come and men may go,
But I go on for ever.

With many a curve my banks I fret,
By many a field and fallow,
And many a fairy foreland set
With willow-weed and mallow.

I chatter, chatter as I flow,
To join the brimming river;
For men may come and men may go,
But I go on for ever.

I wind about, and in and out,
With here a blossom sailing,
And here and there a lusty trout,
And here and there a grayling;

And here and there a foaming flake
Upon me as I travel,
With many a silvery water break
Above the golden gravel;

And draw them all along, and flow
To join the brimming river;
For men may come and men may go,
But I go on for ever.

I steal by lawns and grassy plots,
I slide by hazel covers;
I move the sweet forget-me-nots
That grow for happy lovers.

I slide, I glide, I gleam, I glance
Among the skimming swallows;
I make the netted sunbeam dance
Against my sandy shallows.

I murmur under moon and stars
In brambly wildernesses:
I linger by the shingly bars;
I loiter round my cresses.

And out again I curve and flow
To join the brimming river;
For men may come and men may go,
But I go on for ever.

AN ABSENT-MINDED JUDGE.

Quite an amusing adventure befell Judge Van Buren on Saturday evening, which created no small amount of merriment among his friends. The Judge, it appears, had ordered a new pair of boots from a shoemaker on State street; and he went over on Saturday to put them on. The shoemaker put up the old boots in a brown paper parcel and his honor walked away with his parcel in his hand, the new boots on his feet. Coming to a huckster stand opposite the post-office, he spied a pair of fine fat chickens, which he thought would make an excellent Sunday dinner. He bought them, and the store-keeper put them up in a brown paper parcel. The Judge, rather heavy laden, proceeded homewards with the old boots in one hand and the chickens in the other. "After all," thought he, "the old boots are of no use to me anyhow. I may as well give them to some poor man and relieve myself. It will be doing a charity to both parties." At the corner of the street he encountered a colored man.

"Here, friend," said the Judge, handing him a brown paper parcel, "there's a present for you, and I hope they'll fit."

"Thank you, sir," said the astonished shade, "I'm sure they will." And he went on his way rejoicing.

The Judge also went on his way, glad at heart. He met some friends at the door of Mr. Jordan, the undertaker, on Clark street.

"Good evening, Mr. Jordan," said his Honor, in a cheery tone, "business brisk?"

Mr. Jordan looked grave.

"I have just bought a pair of splendid chickens," said the Judge, "for Sunday dinner.—Just look at them." And he proceeded to open the parcel for inspection.

"Chickens?" exclaimed Mr. Jordan, "why they look mighty like a pair of very old boots. I shouldn't like to have them chickens in my stomach."

The Judge took off his hat, and scratched his head. "Why hang me if I haven't give that darkie the chickens after all. Well, I'm a pair of boots ahead, and a pair of chickens short."—Chicago Tribune.

"DON'T SAY 'NO,' EASY."—How is it you never go with bad boys, or get into any bad scrapes?" asked a little fellow of his playmate.

"Oh," said the other, "that is because I don't say 'no,' easy."

We thank the boy for his secret. It is worth a great deal more than a bag of money. I have no doubt saying no as if you did not mean it, has ruined many a child. When a bad boy or girl tries to coax you to do a wrong thing, say "no," as if you meant "no," and no mistake.

When Satan whispers for you to serve him and do wrong, and make you great promises, as he did to the Lord Jesus in the wilderness, do not say "no," easy, but answer him as Jesus did: "Get thee behind me, Satan." That is a "no" he can understand.

"Whatsoever ye do, do it heartily, as to the Lord, and not unto men."

ANECDOTE OF HUME.—An amusing anecdote is told of Dr. Robinson, of Scotland, who, with a ready wit, drew an illustration from a misfortune of David Hume to point an argument. It was as follows:

The celebrated Mr. Hume wrote an essay on the sufficiency of nature; and the no less celebrated Dr. Robertson on the sufficiency of Revelation, and the insufficiency of the light of nature. Hume came one evening to visit Robertson, and the evening was spent on the subject. The friends of both were present, and it is said that Robertson reasoned with accustomed clearness and power. Whether Hume was convinced by his reasoning or not we cannot tell; but at any rate he did not acknowledge his conviction. Hume was very much of a gentleman, and, as he rose to depart, bowed politely to those in the room, while, as he retired through the door, Robertson took the light to show him the way.

"O, sir," he continued, "I find the light of nature always sufficient," as he bowed on.

The street door was open; presently, as he bowed along the entry, he stumbled over some-thing concealed, and pitched down stairs into the street. Robertson ran after him with a candle, and, as he held it over him, whispered softly and cunningly,—

"You had better have a little light from above, friend Hume," and, raising him up, he bade him good night and returned to his friends.

A gentlemen mentioned to Archbishop Whately that he had been caught in the rain, and was wet through. "Are you really wet through?" said the archbishop; "I was never wet through in my life, never further than my skin."

[From the Philada. City Item.

EDWARD McPHERSON,

CLERK OF THE U. S. HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

It is a prime fault of our American civilization arising from its newness that, outside of New England, an American can aspire to eminence only through political pursuits.—America has little learning and few scholars, for the simple reason that she does not yet pay sufficient honors to learning and scholarship. The American brain is inferior to the European in nothing save that it is not so well directed. In England and on the continent, civilization constantly brings upon the surface Carlyles, Hugos, Cousins and a swarm of literary and scientific men who wield a powerful influence over society without collecting it through political channels. In this country there is a dearth of great minds outside of politics. We do not lack statesmen of the most comprehensive character. Take away a few great names abroad, who tower above their fellows in statesmanship, and the foreigners are immeasurably inferior to ourselves as liberal-minded politicians. But our era for scholars has not yet come. Formerly, we complained that we needed wealth for more thorough education; now, we do not so much lack wealth as that aristocratic direction of wealth which in Europe makes a class at leisure and produces scholars. As yet we seem to be able to support no class at leisure but gamblers. The scholar has not obtained a status in our civilization. To be known here to the people a man must be a worker as well as a thinker—or rather, he must think as he works. Pure intellectual speculation is at a discount. At best, an American can expect to obtain scarcely more than the ordinary academic education, before he is forced into the world of strife to buffet the waves of fortune as he can. Our society is almost purely practical, and as it offers almost no inducement to the pursuits of letters, of art, or of taste, politics becomes the best stepping-stone to distinction, and ambition for distinction must ordinarily satisfy itself here with politics. The politician is the man whom Americans delight to honor. Success as a politician in the United States confers the honors and the influence which the various distinctions confer in Europe.

To rise here in the estimation of his countrymen the citizen finds politics his best province for action, since it embraces the only field in which, on a grand scale, intellectual and practical labor may be combined. And it is this which for success pleases the genius of our civilization.

It thus happens at present, that whatever other qualities a man may possess, only as a politician, working earnestly for the good of his country, he becomes the representative American citizen. Such a man is EDWARD MCPHERSON, Clerk of the United States House of Representatives. Possessing refined scholarly tastes, but without talents which assume to be more than they are, and without an overweening or selfish ambition, Mr. MCPHERSON has become more thoroughly identified than any other man of his age with the workings of recent American politics. Acting with the great Liberal party of the country, and serving it in the capacity of Clerk to the National Representative Assembly, perhaps no man has become so thoroughly infused with the knowledge and spirit of its principles. Take him abroad, where alone the experiment is of importance, and Mr. MCPHERSON would be today the truest exponent of our Republican politics. His executive cast of mind and character, and his official relation with the whole body of popular representatives, would make him perhaps more representative than any of them, of our political facts in contradistinction to our political theories. Such men as STEVENS, KELLY, SCOFIELD and ASHLEY are in a few theories more radical than their party. BINGHAM, SPAULDING and BANKS are something more conservative. But liberal as he is to all the speculations of his friends, Mr. MCPHERSON works as an individual and as an officer within the broad limits of the party organization. He neither strikes you as being too narrow or too broad for the Republican creed, but as truly a representative man. Outside of his official position he is an indefatigable worker, and has done the country most essential and important service. His "History of the Rebellion," finished almost with the close of the war, and compiled from the most authentic of official documents, will remain for the future the completest record of that most eventful period of our nation. His two political pamphlets, volumes in matter and size, for the years 1866 and 1867, are invaluable records in these times, not only to every political worker, but to every American citizen who desires a proper acquaintance with our legislation since the war. These volumes are compiled from every possible source of interest—from the press; from the enactments of Congress; from the resolutions of conventions; from the decisions of the Supreme Court; from the speeches of the Executive.—They present through the discriminating judgment of their author the completest journal of the country's life for the past five years and the strongest argument in support of Republican principles which it is possible to present to an intelligent public. The labor required for the preparation of these volumes is one such as any man with a less clear insight of the public necessity or with a less determined energy and industry than Mr. MCPHERSON's, would shrink from.

These documents are sold and distributed by thousands throughout the entire country, and in their influence for the spreading of truth and correct opinion among the people are worth a legion of orators. Beyond the special object of preparing these political pamphlets Mr. MCPHERSON constantly lays under contribution the press of the entire country for such articles as may, for any purpose, at any period, serve to throw light upon the history of the times.

In this manner he has gained and is gaining for the future such a compendious expression of public opinion as perhaps will be vainly sought elsewhere. In fine, by the mere force of systematic industry, no man is to-day serving the Republican organization with such happy success. This industry is the more admirable from the fact that it gives itself scarcely an interval of rest. From the first session of the Thirty-seventh Congress, to which Mr. MCPHERSON was returned the youngest member, until the present time, he has passed his time between his home at Gettysburg and the capital wholly in the public service.

As a clerk of the House of Representatives none of Mr. MCPHERSON's predecessors have been more faithful and efficient. That love of order and system which is one of his characteristics places the clerical offices under his easy control. He rarely appears officially upon the floor of the House unless at the beginning of sessions or to read Executive messages or vetoes, which he delivers with such clear-toned precision as to give these documents a force that of late they have not possessed inherently.

There exists still some jealousy in the minds of Western members, toward the fact that the Clerkship of the House like the Secretaryship of the Senate is so long retained in the hands of our State; but so long as the House retains its present elements of organization Mr. MCPHERSON's fitness and claims for the position he now holds will not want acknowledgement. But this consideration is of little importance while the nation is so quick to recognize the labors of those who best serve it.

As a man Mr. MCPHERSON is a thorough Democrat in conduct and disposition. Frank and affable with all, he lacks by no means dignity and decision of personal character.—With al he is a true type of the American gentleman.

His mind is perhaps more distinguished by clearness and power of execution than by originality of conception—more by its breadth than by its depth of comprehension. But his capacity for work and his faithfulness to the public interests will lead him to accomplish far more than many who assume to possess more original endowments.

In person Mr. MCPHERSON is slightly made, and a little above the medium height. His temperament is the nervous sanguine. The clear precision of his features gives his face a cast almost classical. The large steady blue eyes which light the expression, give you at once an impression of sincere character and scholarly thought. W. J. A.

PROFANITY.—In New York city, recently a man was fined ten dollars for using twenty oaths, the law in that State assessing the utterance of an oath at fifty cents. The profanity of the people of the United States is of a milder type than formerly, but still it is an American peculiarity to back up a statement by language which "savors more of strength than righteousness," as a deceased clergyman once mildly described words unfit for polite ears.—An exchange suggests that if the laws making swearing a finable offence were enforced throughout the whole country, we might improve the morals of the community and pay off the national debt in a very short time.

THE JEWISH NEW YEAR.—On Sunday evening commenced the Jewish holidays which Israelites consider the most important of all their religious festivals, and they have quite a goodly number of them. Their new year 5628 began with the setting of the sun on the evening of the 29th. On Rosh Hashana (New Year), according to Jewish tradition, the Creator decides who is to live, who to die, during the year, and the orthodox synagogues had a direct reference to this belief. In some Jewish palaces of worship the men wear shrouds, but this custom has been abandoned by several congregations, where innovation and religious reform are making rapid progress.

SHARP: Under this head the West Chester Republican publishes the following: 'A hotel keeper in Lancaster county, was 'taken in and done for,' a few days since, in the following manner: Two countrymen took lodging at his place, and fared sumptuously, drinking three bottles of wine daily. The last day, and before they had settled their bill, a dispute arose about the speed of their horses. They at last settled upon a race, and appointed the landlord judge. When they were ready, the judge, like those of the Olympian games, gave the word—one, two, three, and go. Away they went, and have neither been seen nor heard of since. No doubt they are running at this moment (a bill in some other place,) leaving this landlord fully compensated by having the honor of being judge."

GIVING THE DEVIL HIS DUE.—There is a point in the following anecdote: A pastor was making a call upon an old lady, who made it a habitual rule never to speak ill of another, and had observed it so closely that she always justified those whom she had heard evil spoken of. Before the old lady made her appearance in the parlor, her several children were speaking this peculiarity of their mother, and one of them playfully added: "Mother has such a habit of speaking well of everybody, that I believe if Satan himself were the subject of conversation, mother would find out some virtue or good quality even in him." Of course this remark elicited some smiling and merriment at the originality of the idea, in the midst of which the old lady entered the room, and on being told what had

BEATEN—NOT CONQUERED.

As we write, the Democracy are jubilant over their so-called victory in Pennsylvania, and their joy finds expression in the booming of cannon, the rattle of drums, and the hoarse shouts of men and boys. Pennsylvania, by a small majority—less than 1,000—elects SHARSWOOD to the Supreme Bench, while both branches of the Legislature are strongly Republican. This is the whole story. But the Democracy have been so accustomed to defeat and disaster during the last six years, that this temporary reverse to the Republican cause seems to have about the same effect upon them, that the first battle of Bull Run had upon their Rebel friends in the South.—And yet a close examination of the field shows conclusively that while the Democracy have carried the State, it is purely an accidental victory, with little or nothing in its aspects to justify despondency on the part of Republicans.—The vote of Philadelphia alone, where confessedly local causes influenced the result, gives the State to SHARSWOOD.—There the fight was made on the Lager Beer and Sunday law legislation, for which the Republican party was held responsible, causing a heavy Republican vote to be thrown for the Democratic nominees. Outside of Philadelphia the gains and losses pretty nearly balance each other. Philadelphia gives SHARSWOOD 2,477 majority, while last year it gave GEARY 5,388. The same vote in Philadelphia this year would have given the State to the Republicans by over 7,000 majority. In addition to this the official returns show that the vote in the State has been unusually light—probably 80,000 less than last year. While the Democracy went into the canvass energetically, and with the aid of secret circulars, thorough organization, and plenty of money, succeeded in polling a comparatively full vote, the management of the Republican canvass was sluggish in the extreme—thousands of Republicans failing to vote, by reason of want of appreciation of the importance of the contest.

While, therefore, it is evident that the Republicans have lost the State, by reason of mismanagement of the canvass, general apathy, and the introduction of side issues foreign to the legitimate mission of the Republican party, the result has its lessons which it would be well to heed. The truth is—the Republican party has grown so rapidly in strength and so used to overwhelming victories, that many of our friends had reasoned themselves into the conviction that as a party organization it was omnipotent and could dare to do anything. Much of the crude legislation at Harrisburg and Washington, superinduced by this mistaken assumption, had better have been let alone. The mission of the Republican party is a grave one and concerns the highest glory and future prosperity of the Republic, in the reconstruction of the Union in the interest of loyalty and freedom. The successful accomplishment of this mission must not be jeopardized by the unnecessary interpolation of side issues, however meritorious in themselves, into the Republican creed. It will be well for the party in the coming Presidential struggle, if the teachings of this fall be heeded, and wiser counsels prevail. Nor do we doubt that such will be the result.

In 1862, the Republican party, reposing in false security, met with defeat of a far more serious character. Now Pennsylvania is lost by a majority of some 800, while the Legislature is Republican in both branches. Ohio elects the Republican Governor, but gives to Democracy the Legislature by four or five majority. In 1862, on the other hand, our defeat was general and decided. We not only lost our State ticket, but with it the Legislature, enabling the Democracy to send BUCKALEW to the U. S. Senate. New York gave SEYMOUR 8,000 majority, with a Democratic majority in the Congressional delegation. Ohio, Indiana and Illinois went heavily Democratic—Illinois by 20,000, and Indiana by 10,000.—Yet the next year (1863) the Republicans rallied and swept these States by heavy majorities—Pennsylvania by 15,000, New York 32,000, Indiana 15,000, Illinois 20,000, and Ohio 80,000! The Democracy of 1862, as now, bawled themselves hoarse with cries of "Re-action," "The Nigger," and the assumed "Death of the Republican Party." But the Republicans, so far from yielding to despondency, at once went to work to close up their ranks. "Every man to his post!"—was the watchword, and glorious victory the result.

So it will be, again. Although beaten in the late contest, the Republican party has in no wise dishonored its flag. It has not abdicated its principles, NOR WILL IT. Honor and duty—the present and future—require that these principles become the recognized policy of the Republic, engraven in the National heart, and irrevocably written in its statute books. As in 1862, so now, the thousands of sluggish, stay-at-home Republicans will have learned that victory can only be achieved in a full vote—every man doing his duty. With the lessons of the present defeat before us, victory—full, thorough, and overwhelming—becomes an ASSURED FACT in the coming Presidential struggle.

IT is estimated that 10,000 deserters voted at the late election in Pennsylvania. And it is known that the "Democratic" election officers throughout the State disregarded the law and committed perjury. This is true of some in this County, and so common has the practice been that the Harrisburg Telegraph calls upon all persons beaten by these votes to contest for their seats. SHARSWOOD will sit upon the Supreme Bench, by the vote of persons who are disqualified by law from exercising the elective franchise.

THE handsome vote received by Dr. JORDY in the Berwicks, where he is best known, is a gratifying vindication of his good name from the aspersions sought to be cast upon him by the "Democratic" leaders. Mr. HELTZELL'S vote in the county is behind Judge SHARSWOOD'S.

THE vote in the State at the late election is about 80,000 less than last year.—In Adams county it is 720 less.

AN INTERESTING RELIC.

We give a sample of "Democratic" tactics in the recent campaign. The subjoined circular to the Chairmen of the Democratic County Committees, develops the agencies resorted to for the polling of the "Democratic" vote. The scheme is worthy of the fertile brain of WALLACE, who is equally skilful in devising means to poll deserter votes in violation of law, as shown last year, and in buying out his party vote, as shown this year. The "Democrats" must have been flush, to have been able to pay their sluggish men for voting. The practice is a long step in the way of a thorough degradation of the elective franchise, and fitly comes from a party which loudly prates of its purity:

"DEAR SIR:—The necessity for close attention to details in this contest is most apparent. It is comparatively noiseless, but it should be made full of activity.

"The great end to be accomplished is—

"To poll every Democratic vote.

"The first thing to be done is to learn the names of all the Democrats and doubtful men. For this purpose the blanks were furnished you, and so far as you have returned to me the lists I to-day send you copies by mail.—Send the remainder as rapidly as possible.

"These lists are to be placed in the hands of active men in the districts. I enclose in each list a circular describing their duties, for their direction; I also enclose you a copy thereof.

"Make it your business to employ these men yourself; do not trust to letters; go and see them; pay them for their time in warning the dilatory, and for election day, and provide the means to haul the slow men to the polls. It is better to spend money in this way than by meetings. If you have any doubt of the men you employ, tell others of our friends that you have placed money in their hands.

"Get your detailed vote for 1865 and for 1866. Compare the two, and this will show you the districts likely to be slow. Give them special attention now. It is important to get reliable men in each district. Do not devote your attention to making a specific majority, but look to getting your whole vote. When this is done the majority follows.

"In very slow districts I would suggest a special contract with active men, thus:—In 1865 the district polled 100 Democratic votes; in 1866, 120 Democratic votes; now, for every Democratic vote over 110 polled we will pay you a fixed sum the day after the election. This is simply an incentive to bring men out, for the vote of 1866 shows they are there. See that your agents have all Democrats assessed, naturalized and their taxes paid. Let me know what I can do for you.—Send forward the lists rapidly.

"Be very careful of this letter. Keep it entirely private.

"Respectfully yours,

"WILLIAM A. WALLACE,

"Chairman Democratic State Central Com."

REPUBLICAN VICTORIES IN THE SOUTH!

While Pennsylvania falters, the Republicans of Alabama, week before last, carried Alabama, on a vote for a State Convention, by a MAJORITY OF EIGHTY THOUSAND.

In Louisiana, they have also secured a majority of over forty thousand.

Georgia and Mississippi will next wheel into line, and the whole reconstructed South will proudly march under the Republican banner.

ALL parties are liable to occasional revulsions. The Democrats, in old times, lost Pennsylvania in 1840, but regained it, largely, in 1841. So in 1846, and they recovered it in 1847. So in 1848, and they recovered it in 1849. So in 1854, and they recovered it in 1855. So in 1858, and they recovered it in 1859. So in 1860, and they would have recovered it in 1861, but for the Rebellion and their sympathizing with it.

Likewise, the Republicans lost the State in 1862 by 3,000, and recovered it in 1863 by 15,000. We lose it now, chiefly from personal and local divisions, but will carry it next year without trouble.

TAKING advantage of the absence of our modest colleague, Hon. EDWARD MCPHERSON, we print on the first page of to-day's paper, a brief sketch, taken from a series of articles on our rising public men, which have been appearing in the Philadelphia City Item. We are sure that it will be read with pleasure by his friends. Mr. MCPHERSON has been honored beyond any public man of his age, in positions of high public trust, involving a tribute of unusual confidence in his personal worth and official integrity. It will be remembered that the Trustees of Pennsylvania College, at their last meeting, recognizing his literary labors and personal worth, unanimously ordered the honorary degree of LL.D. to be conferred on him—a compliment of no mean order, as Pennsylvania College has always been chary of its honors, and had conferred the same degree but twice before, during a period of over 30 years. We congratulate our colleague on his accumulating honors. It is not every editorial firm that can boast of an LL.D.

THE Republican vote was not polled in Adams county—the entire vote being 770 less than last year. Some of the districts did nobly, however. Hamilton, Mountjoy, and Berwick townships reduced the Democratic majorities. Butler held its own, while Hamiltonban and Highland gave larger majorities than for Geary. In Menallen and York Springs, the Republican majorities fell short, simply because the vote was not out. Next year will tell a different story.

"DEMOCRATIC" Editors think Congressional reconstruction will surely miscarry. They haven't yet heard of the 80,000 majority given for it in Alabama, and of the overwhelming majority in Louisiana. These Republican majorities sound the death-knell of the Democratic Party.

MISSISSIPPI and ARKANSAS are to vote on the first Tuesday in November, for or against a State Convention to restore those States, and for delegates to the same if a majority vote to hold one.—There is no doubt there will be a large affirmative majority.

THE "Democrats" have carried the Legislature of Ohio, and will elect PENDLETON or VALLANDIGHAM to the U. S. Senate, to succeed BENJAMIN F. WADE, whose term will expire March 4, 1869.—They carried most of the close counties, and thus secured the majority.

"DEMOCRATS" are so unused to Victory that they hardly know how to carry themselves under it. It will be several years before they have another chance.—We intend to elect the next President, and that victory will mean something, and carry something with it.

THE ELECTIONS.

PENNSYLVANIA.

The official vote elects SHARSWOOD to the Supreme Bench by 800 majority. The Legislature will be Republican in both branches. Senate—Republicans 20, Democrats 13.—House—Republicans 54, Democrats 46. Republicans majority on joint ballot 15.

OHIO.

HAYES (Republican) has about 3000 majority for Governor. The Legislature will be close, but probably a small Democratic majority in each house—giving them a U. S. Senator in place of Mr. WADE.

IOWA.

Iowa stands nobly by the Republican cause, rolling up a majority of over 27,000, with both branches of the Legislature four-fifths Republican.

INDIANA.

Indiana stands firm—the reported Democratic gains in the northern counties being counterbalanced by heavy Republican gains in the South tier of counties.

PENNSYLVANIA—Official.

THE "Democrats are predicting the death of the Republican Party, because "Cock Robin" shot at and hit it with his puny arrow. The Republican Party is incapable of annihilation. Its principles are immortal. It no more means to abandon them now, than it did in 1862, when a majority of the people, in a fit of despair, gave several of the great States into the keeping of its and the country's enemies. It stuck to its colors then. It will do the same now. This great Party, which its enemies wish was dead, will live to save the nation from their polluting and destroying grasp.

THE "Democrats" did not have much of an open campaign. They gave their energy and money to polling their vote, on the plan shown in WALLACE'S circular. On this plan, playing "Democratic" township politician pays, as it enables them to sell their own political friends to their State Committee at so much a head.

This is very pleasant for the corrupt politician. But how do the deceived masses enjoy the luxury of being sold by their township politicians?

IT is supposed by some excitable "Democratic" Editors that the recent elections will "paralyze Congress." They will find that Congress is not so easily frightened, and that it will march straight on in the great work of restoring the Union on a loyal basis. The elections furnish no reason for their stopping an instant in that great and patriotic work.

IN 1857, the "Democrats" carried Adams county by 463 majority for Packer. In 1867, they have carried it by 392. We don't see where the gains come in.

In 1858, they lost most of their County ticket. Next year, we will "try their mettle" again. Republicans may be defeated, but they cannot be dismayed.

GOING BACK TO WASHINGTON.—"We shall regain the seats of power, this grand old Democratic party: and I say to these loyal gentlemen that the places which now know you shall know you no more forever. We shall reconstruct the Union, and restore that proud flag, which, God forgive me, I have bowed down to in blind adoration in my youthful days, and wept before it in tearful devotion. We are going back to Washington, and I shall see him [turning to Mr. Voorhees] there, as I saw him in his grandest eloquence on the Conscription bill, and Pendleton, with all his thundering oratory; and Seymour, and George W. Morgan, and—yes, and I shall be there; yes, and, maybe I'll be Secretary of War. Yes, we'll be there; we'll reconstruct the Republic and restore the flag without one stripe erased from its folds."—Vallandigham's speech at Columbus.

The distinguished martyr appears to be very confident that he and his friends are "going back to Washington." How would the people relish the following "spectacle":

President—Horatio Seymour.
Vice President—Jesse D. Bright.
Secretary of War—Clement L. Vallandigham.
Secretary of Navy—"Admiral" Semmes.
Secretary of Interior—Heister Clymer.
Postmaster General—Thomas B. Florence.
Attorney General—Jerry Black.
Commissioner of Indian Affairs—John Morrissey.
Comptroller of the Currency—Benj. Wood.
Editor of the Organ—"Brick" Pomeroy."

MURDER IN A CHURCH.—On Sunday last, Ferdinand Hoffman, recently discharged from the Penitentiary, entered the German Reformed Church, in Canton, Ohio, and approached a young woman, named Caroline Juss, some time since divorced from him, demanding a kiss. While in the act of complying he drew a large butcher-knife and plunged it into her person eleven times, inflicting fatal wounds. The desperado fled pursued by an excited crowd, and upon being arrested was with difficulty saved from summary execution by the enraged populace.

WOOD WANTED.—A few cords of good Wood will be taken at this office, in payment of subscriptions, if delivered immediately.

☞We would direct the attention of the ladies to the sale of fashionable millinery at Mrs. C. X. MARTIN'S to-morrow afternoon.

ZOUAVES.—The Zouaves will meet for drill and parade, in full dress, on Saturday next, at 10 A. M.

SERVICES.—Communion services will be held in the Presbyterian Church in Hunterstown, on Sunday the 27th inst. Preparatory services the preceding day at 2 o'clock, P. M. Prof. FERRIER will officiate.

CLERICAL.—Rev. B. M. SCHMUCKER, of Easton, Pa., has accepted a call from St. James Lutheran Church in Reading. Rev. REUBEN HILL goes to Easton.

CATTLE KILLED.—As the down train on Friday morning last approached New Oxford, it ran into a herd of cattle, nearly 20 in number, which were upon the track, and killed five and injured a sixth. The train was not thrown from the track. The cattle were owned by Mr. James Gitt. One bull is estimated as worth $100; 3 were fine steers and 1 a cow.

GRAPES.—We are indebted to Mr. HENRY NOEL, of Wolf Hill, for a basket of delicious Grapes which he calls the "Wine Grape." They are of the Republican species—like the donor.

SCHOOL EXHIBITION.—The School in East Berlin, under charge of Mr. J. C. HILDEBRAND, gave an Exhibition last week, consisting of dialogues, speeches, vocal and instrumental music—the latter being furnished by the East Berlin Brass Band. The exercises are said to have been very interesting and highly creditable to Mr. HILDERBRAND and all concerned.

BURGLARY.—The store of Jos. S. GILLESPIE, on York street, was broken into on Wednesday night, and robbed of fancy articles, sugar, &c., to the value of two hundred dollars. An entrance was effected through a window in the ware room. The burglars left on the premises a chisel which has since been recognised by WM. C. STALLSMITH as his property—having been stolen from him some time ago.

ANONYMOUS COMMUNICATIONS.—No anonymous communications, on any subject, can appear in the "STAR & SENTINEL." The rule is imperative. We shall be glad to receive articles from our friends, and will publish all of general interest; but the writers must send in their names—otherwise no attention can be paid to them.—We received a communication from East-Berlin last week, which, having no name attached to it, had to be thrown aside. We have repeatedly called attention to this rule, and hope correspondents will bear it in mind.

COUNTERFEIT 7-30 BONDS.—Intense excitement was produced last week in financial circles by the discovery that an immense number of Counterfeit Seven-thirty Bonds were in circulation, so well executed as to pass undetected through the hands of Jay Cook & Co., Fish & Hatch, Vermilye & Co., and other well known banking houses. The discovery was made in the Treasury Department last week by a number of these Bonds being sent in by these Bankers for redemption in five-twenties—a number of the Bonds being duplicates in letters and numbers of those issued by the Department. It is supposed that over $200,000 of these counterfeits were circulated in N. York city alone. Detectives have been put to work to ferret out the source whence they eminate.

A YEAR OF RELIGIOUS JUBILEE.—It is pretty generally known that the present year of 1867 is the seventh semi-centennial anniversary of the Great Reformation. On the 31st of October, 1567, MARTIN LUTHER nailed to the church door the celebrated theses, which inaugurated the great religious revolution that give birth to Protestant Christianity. The Lutheran Church in the United States, bearing the name of the great Reformer, and recognizing the Confession promulgated by the Lutheran divines at Augsburg, proposes to observe the coming eclesiastical year, commencing with October 31, as a year of Jubilee—during which special religious exercises will be held, and special efforts will be made to secure large contributions for educational and religious purposes.

PROPERTY SALES.—ABEL T. WRIGHT, Executor of the estate of John McKnight, dec'd, on the 7th inst. sold the following Real Estate of said deceased, in Menallen township, viz—

No. 1—The Mansion House and Lot, to Wm. W. Blocher, for $1,164.

2—Lot containing 2 acres and 159 perches, for $159 per acre, to Wm. Blocher.

3—2 acres and 89 perches, for $126 per acre, to Enoch Rauadzahn.

4—2 acres and 47 perches, for $101 per acre, to G. W. Harman.

5—3 acres and 41 perches, for $135 per acre, to W. Harman.

6—3 acres and 117 perches, for $107 per acre, to Jonas Rauanzahn.

7—2 acres and 106 perches, for $90 per acre, to Jonas Rauanzahn.

8—1 acre and 157 perches, for $135 per acre, to Washington Morrison.

9—Four Building Lots; two at $44 each one at $50, and one at $56, to E. N. McKimm.

10—Building Lot for $55, to Wm. Yeatts, jr.

11—10 acres of Timber Land, for $11 50 per acre, to A. T. Wright.

The entire sale netted $3,900.06.

LEWIS SEROUSE has re-purchased from Messrs. DETRICH & FIDLER the property on Carlisle street, sold by him to them a few weeks ago.

GEO. HEWITT, sen., has sold to THOMAS JONES, of Latimore township, a small farm of about 35 acres, near Bendersville, for $3,000 dollars.

GEO. W. WILSON has sold his house and lot in Bendersville, for $850 to C. EPPELMAN, and has purchased from EMILY BATEMAN'S house and barn, with about 7 acres of land for $1,650.

GEO. E. BRINGMAN has purchased from DAVID WARREN his one-half interest in the Gettysburg Forge for $2,000.

DEATH.—The Rev. JOHN ANDERSON, a well known and much respected minister of the East Baltimore (M. E.) Conference, (formerly on the Gettysburg circuit,) was stricken with apoplexy at Snydertown, Pa., on the evening of the 15th ult., and after lingering until the Tuesday following, was gathered to his fathers. Mr. ANDERSON was stationed at Sunbury, and on the day when prostrated had preached three times. He was aged 63 years.

ARREST.—JOHN BAER, a shoemaker, residing at Powhattan Factory, in Baltimore county, was arrested in Baltimore on the 7th inst, upon the charge of stealing a horse, valued at $100, the property of Jos. Fickes, of Shippensburg, Pa. It appears that about eight years ago J. F. Koehler, of Abbottstown, in this county, bought a horse which was subsequently identified as having been stolen from Fickes, and was restored to him. On the 7th, he saw Baer on the street, in Baltimore, and charged him with being the party who sold him the horse. Baer, on the other hand, states that he has not been outside the State of Maryland for twelve years. He was committed for the action of the authorities of Pennsylvania.

SOLDIERS' MONUMENT.—The surviving members of the 1st Minnesota, which made a gallant fight at Gettysburg, have prepared a handsome memorial tribute to their fallen comrades, to face the Minnesota lot in the National Cemetery at this place.—Mr. CANNON is preparing the monument, which is nearly ready to be put up. It consists of a large marble Vase, set on a marble die, which rests on a marble pedestal, and this again on a larger granite base—the whole being about six feet high. The face of the pedestal has the following inscription:—

"The surviving members First Regiment Minnesota Infantry, to the memory of their late associates, who 'died on the field of honor,' at Gettysburg, July, 1863."

On the reverse—

"First Minnesota Volunteers."

On one side is the inscription—

"The dead shall not have died in vain."

On the other—

"All time is the millennium of their glory."

The work is in Mr. CANNON'S best style, and the monument will be an additional attraction to the Cemetery.

ANOTHER.—A few weeks ago we published a verbatim notice given by the Supervisors of one of the districts in this county, indicating that the Schoolmaster has some work yet to do in this region. Here is another specimen, the original of which, addressed to a Justice of the Peace, has been handed to us. We omit names:

WORTH THINKING OF.—We notice that our exchanges generally complain of the deficiency in Agricultural products, &c. at the various county exhibitions this year, compared with former years, while all speak of the interest centering in the trotting matches. The York Republican adverting to the matter pertinently remarks: "Probably the too great attraction which has recently been bestowed upon the performances in the equestrian circle has tended to diminish the interest felt in these exhibitions by a large portion of the farmers. We do not say positively that it is so, nor do we say that there is anything wrong about this matter; but still in casting about to ascertain the causes of the diminished interest manifested in these fairs, it may be well to consider this." While the introduction of the track and racing has largely added to the attractions of these Agricultural Exhibitions, the Republican is unquestionably right in its suggestion that the cause of the diminished interest in the agricultural and mechanical departments is to be found in the over-shadowing interest centering in the race-course, which bids fair to defeat, in a large measure, the original and legitimate purposes of these annual exhibitions. The recent State Fair at Pittsburg was a failure in all but fast horses. It is a matter worthy the serious attention of the managers of these County Societies.—How to remedy the evil, is a problem involving difficulty, we admit—but it should be remedied. The raising of good horses is as important as any other stock, and should be encouraged; but would it not be better for farmers and all concerned that the Premiums should have less reference to speed than to excellence for farm and industrial purposes. Better discontinue the premiums for speed altogether than convert Agricultural Exhibitions into simple racing courses.

ORDER OF UNITED AMERICAN MECHANICS.—A Council of the O of U. A. M. was instituted at Petersburg, Y. S. on Friday evening, September 20th, by State Councellor Wm. Feaster. Quite a number joined the order as Charter members. The regular meetings are held in the Odd Fellows' Hall on Friday evening of each week. The following are the officers for the present term:

C., R. W. Sadler; V. C., H. C. Peters; R. S., H. W. Becker; A. R. S., Harry Larew; T., J. J. Metcalfe; F. S., A. H. Rhoads; J., J. Frank Gardner; E., J. L. Worley; I. P., D. C. Sheffer; O. P., John Day.

PENNA. COLLEGE.—There is a paper published in Philadelphia, called The Lutheran, the organ of the re-actionary party in the Lutheran Church, which seems to be afflicted with a peculiarly morbid sensitiveness in regard to matters affecting the Literary and Theological Institutions at Gettysburg—the mere mention of either College or Seminary having an effect upon its conductors marvellously akin to that of water on a rabid dog. Our recent notice of the prosperity of Pa. College, as shown in the large increase of students at the opening of the present year, excited fresh spasmodic symptoms on the part of the Lutheran, evidenced in sundry churlish growls. With the theological difficulties in the Lutheran Church, the "Star and Sentinel," as a secular paper, is in no wise concerned; and if the Lutheran and its friends believe Allentown, with its numberless lager-beer saloons and other notable attractions, a better place to educate boys than Gettysburg, we do not object. That is a question to be determined by parents and guardians for themselves. But we can't exactly understand the animus of these persistent and discreditable assaults upon Penna. College. The Lutheran professes to be a religious journal. Since the withdrawal of Dr. KRAUTH, it seems to have no responsible editor. Whoever the conductor of it be, we take the liberty of suggesting to him that persistent misrepresentations, and perversions of truth, are not the legitimate province of a religious journalist, and that the dignity, as probably also the usefulness, of the Lutheran might be largely enhanced by more regard to truth and the proprieties of religious journalism.

CHURCH DEDICATION.—On Sunday last the new Lutheran church in Littlestown was dedicated with appropriate services—Rev. Dr. MCCRON, of Baltimore, Drs. BROWN, HAY and VALENTINE, of this place, Revs. ALLEMAN and YINGLING of Hanover, being present, and assisting in the exercises, which are represented as having been very interesting. This church is the largest and handsomest in the county, the pews on lower floor alone accommodating 600 persons. It has a steeple, basement, lecture room, all finished in good taste—the church room proper being handsomely frescoed, with stained windows. It cost about $12,000—$5,000 of which had been raised by subscription. About $3,500 additional were contributed on the day of consecration—leaving about $3,500 as a debt.

PREMIUM.—At the Cumberland county Agricultural Exhibition last week, the First Premium was awarded to the "Diamond Churn," exhibited by WM. WIBLE, of this county.

☞Our Business Directory will appear next week.

A DISTRESSING COUGH causes the friends of the sufferer almost as much pain as the sufferer himself, and should receive immediate attention. DR. WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY speedily cures coughs, colds, influenza, sore throat, &c. It will always relieve consumption, and in many well attested cases it has effected a perfect cure. 1t

COUNTY TEMPERANCE UNION.

MR. EDITOR:—Allow me, through the columns of the "STAR AND SENTINEL," to urge upon all organizations of a Temperance character, and Christian churches, as well as seminaries, colleges, &c., the necessity of being represented at the meeting of the County Union, on Saturday, the 19th inst.

It is only a prompt response of the friends of the cause that will enable us to effect an organization that will reach every portion and district of the county. It is a subject in which every Christian minister and church organization is directly interested; and to them we appeal, in an especial manner, for their presence and co-operation on next Saturday.

The friends of the cause in every other portion of the State are active—it is time Adams county should become aroused. In consequence of the Commissioners having refused the use of the Court-house for our meeting, it will be held in one of the churces or halls of the town.

J. H. WERT.

☞The Philadelphia National Refreshment Saloons, where the soldiers from every part of the Union were fed during the late war were an honor to Philadelphia, and there is a peculiar propriety in the circumstance that Philadelphia should inaugurate a plan for the endowment of a National Institute where the orphans of these same heroes may have a home and receive an education. This is what the Trustees of the Riverside Institute are aiming most successfully to accomplish. Acting under the Charter of the Washington Library Company, incorporated by the State of Pennsylvania, they are offering stock at the ow rate of one dollar per share, and will give to each subscriber a beautiful and valuable steel engraving, worth at retail more than the price of the stock, and as an additional inducement will distribute among the stockholders presents valued at $300,000. In the distribution every one has an equal chance to obtain large presents; one is worth $40,000, another $20,000, &c. Who can refuse to do a patriotic and benevolent action on these terms. 1t

HELMBOLD'S CONCENTRATED FLUID EXTRACT SARSAPARILLA

Eradicates Eruptive and Ulcerative Diseases of the Throat, Nose, Eyes, Eyelids, Scalp, and Skin,

Which so disfigure the appearance, Purging the evil effects of Mercury, and removing all taints, the remnants of Diseases, hereditary or otherwise, and is taken by Ladies and Children with perfect Safety.

Two Tablespoonfulls of the Extract of Sarsaparilla, added to a pint of water, is equal to the Iodine Diet Drink, and one bottle is equal to a gallon of the Syrup of Sarsaparilla, or the decoctions as usually made.

An Interesting Letter is published in the Medico-Chirurgical Review, on the subject of the Extract of Sarsaparilla, in certain effections by Benjamin Travers, F. R. S., etc. Speaking of those diseases, and diseases arising from the excess of mercury, he states that no remedy is equal to the Extract of Sarsaparilla; its power is extraordinary; more so than any other drug I am acquainted with. It is, in the strictest sense, a tonic with this invaluable attribute, that it is applicable to a state of the system so sunken, and yet so irritable as renders other substances of the tonic class unavailable or injurious.

BREADSTUFFS.—The Flour market is quiet but firm. There is still some demand for shipment, but buyers and seller are apart in their views. The scarcity of freights just at present also has some effect in retarding transactions in shipping brands.

We continue quotations as without essential change: Howard street Super and Cut Extra, 9 75@10 25; Extra Shipping, 10 75@11 25; Retailing, 11 50@13 50; Family, 12 50@13 50; Rye Flour, 8 50@8 75; Corn Meal, 6 50@7 00.

GRAIN.—Wheat—Market very firm with an upward tendency in prices. The sales recorded at 'Change were as follows: White, 2 35@2 80; Red, 2 40@2 80. Corn—Receipts 2,905 bushels white and 5,435 bushels yellow. The sales were as follows: White, 1 43@1 49; Yellow, 1 41@1 45. Oats—Receipts 6,986. Market strong but quiet, with prices slightly higher. Sales at 73@74 cents. Rye—Receipts 1,707 bushels. Market dull and lower. Small sales at 1 58@1 65.

PROVISIONS.—The market is very quiet, and we hear of no sales of any moment.—Quotations for jobbing lots of Bacon are nominally unchanged: Shoulders 14½@14¾ cents; rib Sides 17¾@17¾ cents; clear rib 18½@18¾ cents. Bulk Meats are nominally quoted at 13½@13¾ cents for Shoulders, and 16¾ cents for Sides. Hams 19@20 cents for city cured, and 23@25 cents for Western sugar-cured. Mess Pork is dull, but still held at $25.50. Lard firm; City 14½@14¾ cents; Western 14¾ cents.

PUBLIC SALE.

MILLMONT MILLS AND FARM.

Will be sold at Public Sale, on Friday, October 25th, 1867, MILLMONT MILLS and FARM, situated in Franklin county, Pa., seven miles from Gettysburg, on the Cumberland Valley and Franklin railroad, and on the turnpike between Greencastle and Mercersburg, containing 245 acres of limestone and black slate land;

The Mansion House is of stone, two stories high, and contains nine rooms and a kitchen. It is 54 feet front by 36 deep and the stone kitchen is 20 feet square. There is a colonade the entire front of the mansion, 13 feet broad. The mansion is surrounded by prettily improved grounds, ornamented by a selected variety of shade trees and shrubbery, with neatly gravelled walks. There is also a Brick Wash House, a Stable, carriage House and other necessary outbuildings.

The land is now very productive and capable of being made the best in the county. There are large deposits of limestone on the farm.

The mill property consists of a large limestone mill 50 feet square and four stories high, with four run of stones and capable of manufacturing six thousand barrels of flour per annum. This mill has just been put in perfect repairs with all the late improvements. There are also a Saw Frame Saw Mill, Cooper Shop, Stone Miller's House, Stable, &c.

This property is divided by the Mercersburg turnpike and would make two handsome properties—the south side containing Mansion House, Farm, Farmer's House, small tenant House, &c., and 145 acres of land, the north side containing the mill, about 100 acres of land.

This property is one of the most desirable in Franklin county and well worthy the attention of purchasers. It will be sold together or divided and on accommodating terms. For further information apply to

A LIBRARY OF UNIVERSAL INFORMATION.

IN THE NEW

AMERICAN CYCLOPÆDIA:

A POPULAR DICTIONARY OF GENERAL KNOWLEDGE.

EDITED BY

GEORGE RIPLEY AND CHARLES A. DANA,

AIDED BY A NUMEROUS SELECT CORPS OF WRITERS, IN ALL BRANCHES OF SCIENCE, ART, AND LITERATURE.

In 16 large volumes, 8vo.

750 double-column pages in each volume.

The leading claims to public consideration which the New American Cyclopedia possesses may be thus briefly stated:

1. It surpasses all other works in the fulness and ability of the articles relating to the United States.

2. No other work contains so many reliable biographies of the leading men of the world, other nations. In this respect it is far superior even to the more bulky Encyclopedia Britannica.

3. The best talent in this country have been employed in enriching its pages with the latest data, and the most recent discoveries in every branch of manufactures, mechanics, and agriculture.

4. It is a library in itself, where every topic is treated and where information may be found with well established facts. If the is so disposed, to consult other authorities, thus affording him an invaluable key to knowledge.

5. It is neatly printed, with readable type, on good paper, and contains a most copious index.

6. The Cyclopedia will be given on any thing approaching correct descriptions of cities and towns of America, or embraces reliable statistics showing the wonderful growth of all sections near the old States.

Every one that reads, every one that mingles in society, is constantly meeting with allusions to subjects on which he needs and desires further information for conversation, in trade, in professional life, and in his own family, practical questions are continually arising, which no man, well read or not, can always satisfactorily answer. If facilities for reference, such as the basis of consulted, and not only is the curiosity gratified, and the stock of knowledge increased, but perhaps information is gained which may be of essential value, or of great contribute to the business success of the party concerned.

A Cyclopedia is preeminently the work for our country and generation. This is the age of information. It has time to grope among a hundred different works for every little fact required, with the certainty of finding what is wanted. What Cyclopedia embraces every special able subject, and having its topics alphabetically arranged, not a moment is lost. The matter in question is found at once, digested, condensed and verified by a competent and the best authorities. Moreover, while only few of fortune can collect a library, complete in all the departments of knowledge, a Cyclopedia, worth in itself for purposes of reference more than a thousand volumes, is within the reach of all,—the clerk, the merchant, the professional man, the farmer, the mechanic. In a country like ours, where the humblest may be called to responsible positions requiring intelligence and general information, the value of such a work cannot be over-estimated.

THE HOWE MACHINE CO.'S SEWING MACHINES,

699 BROADWAY, NEW YORK.

These World-renowned Sewing Machines were awarded the Highest Premium at the World's Fair, in London, and six First Premiums at the N. Y. State Fair of 1866, and are celebrated for doing the best work, using a much smaller needle for the same thread than any other machine, and by the introduction of the most approved machinery, we are now able to supply the very best machines in the world.

These machines are made at our new and spacious Factory at Bridgeport, Conn., under the immediate supervision of the President of the Company, ELIAS HOWE, Jr., the original inventor of the Sewing Machine.

They are adapted to all kinds of Family Sewing, and to the use of Seamstresses, Dress Makers, Tailors, Manufacturers of Shirts, Collars, Skirts, Cloaks, Mantillas, Clothing, Hats, Caps, Corsets, Boots, Shoes, Harness, Saddles, Linen Goods, Umbrellas, Parasols, etc. They work equally well upon silk, linen, cotton or woolen goods with silk, cotton or linen thread. They will seam, quilt, gather, hem, fell, cord, braid, bind and perform every species of sewing, making a beautiful and perfect stitch, alike on both sides of the article sewed.

The Stitch, invented by Mr. HOWE, and made on this Machine, is the most popular and durable, and all Sewing Machines are subject to the principle invented by him. Send for Circulars.

SEWING MACHINES!

THE GROVER & BAKER.

THE BEST IN USE.—These Machines have become so well known that little need be said by way of recommendation. They have taken the first premium at all the late State Fairs, and are universally acknowledged to be the BEST in use by all who have tried them. The "Grover & Baker Stitch" and the "Shuttle Stitch" are points that have been attained by no other Machine. They are the only Machines that sew and reeler with perfection. These Machines are peculiarly adapted to Family use. They are almost noiseless, sew directly from the spool without rewinding, and are simple in their construction. They are easy to manage, and can be worked by almost any child. Every family should have one. They never loose, they never tire, they never worry, and do their work better than it can be done by hand.

The undersigned having been appointed Agent for the above Machines, has established an office in Fairfield, Adams co., where he will always have on hand a supply. Persons wishing to buy will please call and examine for themselves.

Needles and Thread will also be supplied.

Twenty Melodic Exercises,

IN FORM OF

INTENDED AS

Studies to acquire the Art of Singing.

"These exercises were composed to be used simultaneously with his system, "THE ART OF SINGING," or with their method for the cultivation of the voice, and will take the place of CONCONE'S SOLFEGGIOS; being more melodious and better adapted for teaching.

"Some of these exercises are specially beautiful as well as useful, a mingling of the dolce et utile, which secures the interest as well as the improvement of the student. The various styles developed in these exercises render them invaluable in an educational point of view, as they tend to enlarge the intelligence and the appreciation, and at the same time form the taste of the pupil. They must be studied carefully with reference to the innumerable marks of expression and forms of ornamentation. Upon the minute accuracy with which these are accomplished depends the actual sterling advancement of the pupil; any evasion or slurring in these respects is time and effort utterly wasted, while, on the other hand, a close and patient investigation, and a minutely faithful execution of them, will give unexpected power and facility, and open to the student the means and resources by which great artists produce their most brilliant and profound effects.—Watson's Art Journal.

THE DAILY AND TRI-WEEKLY issues of the AMERICAN contain all the latest news, both Foreign and Domestic, received by mail and telegraph. Everything of public Interest is obtained at the earliest moment and given to the public. Our special correspondence give in detail all particulars not obtainable through the usual telegraphic synopsis.

The proprietors will continue to use their energies to render the various issues valuable for the record of every day intelligence as well as for the general interest and variety of each sheet. No facilities which can be used will be spared to disseminate useful knowledge and chronicle important events.

In every department of legitimate newspaper enterprise the Publishers propose to meet the demand for early tidings of events, from whatever quarter, with the determination of making the AMERICAN worthy of patronage and support. Our large six-cylinder Hoe's press, together with our paper folding machine, places us far in advance of any journal south of Philadelphia in facilities for the rapid and early supply of newspapers. Sixteen editions of the AMERICAN are issued weekly at our office, consisting of Morning, Afternoon, Tri-weekly and Weekly papers. From this fact alone may be judged the extent of our combined circulation.

GREAT CONOWAGO MILLS.

10,000 BUSHELS OF WHEAT WANTED

The undersigned having remodeled and improved his mills near New Chester, (formerly called "Walnut Grove," but now "Great Conowago Mills") is prepared to do all kinds of work in his line with unusual dispatch.

Constantly on hand, for sale or exchange, the very best qualities of Super, Extra, and Family FLOUR, also Rye, Corn and Buckwheat Flour, with every variety of Chop and offal of wheat.

Having a SAW MILL attached, he is prepared to saw all kinds of lumber, at the shortest notice. A farmer in need of lumber and flour, can put a log upon his wagon, throw a few bushels of wheat on the top, have the wheat exchanged for flour, and the log sawed, thus saving a double trip—and all because of the new and perfect machinery now employed in these mills.

Having the best of workmen, he will be able to please every body. Thankful for past favors he hopes for a continuance of the same. H. J. MYERS.

Agricultural Implements.

BRINKERHOFF'S CORN SHELLER, SEPARATOR AND CLEANER.

The undersigned would inform the Agricultural public that he has purchased from the Patentee of this extraordinary machine, the Patent Right for the States of Pennsylvania and Maryland.

Brinkerhoff's Corn Sheller, Separator and Cleaner, is pronounced the best machine of the kind in this country. And in proof, it may be mentioned that the "Advisory Committee appointed to select the best agricultural implements at the Universal Exposition in Paris, in 1867, have selected this Sheller as the best in America," and at the request of J. C. Derby, U. S. Agent, a machine has been shipped to Paris for exhibition. One important feature in this machine is that it will shell ears large, small or crooked, perfectly clean, and separates the cob and chaff from the Corn ready for market.

The fact may also be stated that at the great trial of Agricultural Implements, at Auburn, N. Y., in July last, under the auspices of the New York State Agricultural Society, the Brinkerhoff Corn Sheller, Separator and Cleaner was reported by one of the most competent Committees as the best Corn Sheller out. They say, "We have carefully examined and thoroughly tested this machine, and have no hesitation in pronouncing it the best Corn Sheller we ever saw." The report is signed by such men as John Stanton Gould, President N. Y. State Agricultural Society; B. P. Johnson, Secretary to same; Solon Robinson, Agricultural Editor N. Y
